

Primary Precision Disc Seeding Modules

These heavy duty twin disc sowing modules are designed as precision seed placement tools, for use in conjunction with deeper working leading tines

Suitable for bars with adequate frame clearance and lifting capacity

Available to order
P O A

Rugged, tapered roller bearings, double seal design with mud shield and dust cap are fitted in disc hubs and presswheels for exceptional service life

Adjustable down-pressure

Adjustable transport height settings

Hub plates are easily adjustable to allow for disc wear

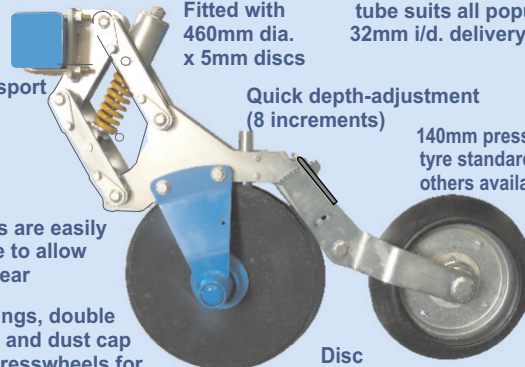

Fitted with 460mm dia. x 5mm discs

Quick depth-adjustment (8 increments)

140mm presswheel tyre standard with others available

Disc mudscrapers are optional

The standard seed tube suits all popular 32mm i/d. delivery hose

Warning!

The assembly and use of agricultural machinery can be Dangerous!
Be safe....Protect yourself! In the interests of safety, Primary Sales Australia recommends that safety glasses and personal safety equipment be used when fitting, adjusting or using any products, especially cast, heat treated and hard faced points.