

TINE MOUNTED COULTERS

Coulters are available as an option, which mount into the tine head. These castoring assemblies are depth and pressure-adjustable and able to be easily pinned-up or removed when not required. While the frame and tine engineering enable seeding into heavy stubbles, these coulter usually help reduce soil throw and can assist when vine-type weeds are an issue.

